

The Prevent Duty

Since July 2015, schools have a legal responsibility to 'have due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism'. The prevent duty is about making sure we can identify worrying behaviour and know how to refer those students who may be at risk of radicalisation for appropriate support.

Educate Against Hate is a tool for parents and schools to give practical advice and help protect children from the risk of radicalisation and extremism. You can access the website here <https://educateagainsthate.com/>

Let's Talk About It is an initiative designed to provide practical help and guidance in order to stop people becoming terrorists or supporting terrorism. <https://www.ltai.info/what-is-prevent/>
