

OSCP is the key statutory mechanism for agreeing how relevant organisations will work together to promote, safeguard and protect the welfare of children and young people across Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly. It is very important for children and young people to know what to do if they are worried about themselves, a friend or another person in the family and to be able to get help or advice.

All children have rights, no matter how old you are, your colour, religion or family situation. Some of these rights include a right to not be harmed by other people or used in ways that hurt you (exploited).

Here you can find advice on how to keep safe, but also what to do if you or someone you know is getting harmed (sometimes known as abuse).
